Hollywood Production Center Breaks into Entertainment Industry in Downtown Los Angeles

Los Angeles, CA – Hollywood Production Center takes the entertainment industry to new heights with its new addition, TENTEN Wilshire offering residential, production and filming space all in one location.

Extending their brand into its third location, Hollywood Production Center will break into the Downtown's entertainment industry in full force, providing everything you could look for in one building. This full service building is located at TENTEN Wilshire a block away from the heart of Downtown, making its location ideal for anyone looking to live, work, play.

Hollywood Production Center at TENTEN Wilshire provides flexible month-to-month leases with incredible amenities. Their multi-functional suites can be used for housing or production offices depending on your needs. Located blocks away from LA Center Studios, TENTEN is the ideal location for producers and directors to stay.

And it doesn't stop there. Hollywood Production Center at TENTEN Wilshire provides everything you need to run a production office smoothly and efficiently. Including onsite conference rooms set up for video and teleconferencing, a fully equipped business center and 100 Mbps speed wired and wireless internet throughout the building and much, much more.

If amenities are what you crave, Hollywood Production Center at TENTEN Wilshire has it all. With built-in barbeques, nightly social hour (complete with complimentary libations), sparkling swimming pool, fitness center, and breathtaking views, you couldn't ask for more.

Hollywood Production Center has been serving the entertainment industry in Southern California for over 7 years in two locations Hollywood and Glendale. Their third location will be open and ready for occupants the beginning of June.
